*Completion of the Fast Track Section does not constitute completion of the Addictive Disorders Certificate Program and no certificate or diploma is issued, although it does satisfy the minimum education requirements for initial certification as an Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse Counselor (CCR, Title 9, Div. 4, Chapter 8, Subchapter 3, Section 13040) and an official transcript will be provided showing the completed units. To graduate from the Addictive Disorders Certificate Program, the student must enroll in and successfully complete the remaining 28 units.

Breining Institute does not offer formal placement services. These programs do not prepare one for any particular career; and the student’s success in obtaining employment in any particular field or any particular level of income are not guaranteed and depend upon many factors including the local economy at the time, the graduate’s abilities, and efforts and prior experience. These programs do not prepare one to sit for any license. The number of students who are placed, or the starting salary you can earn after finishing the education program are unknown at this time. Information regarding general salary and placement statistics may be available from government sources or from the institution, but it is not equivalent to actual performance data.
